This program is in Mandarin and is for parents and children four years old and under.

The Parent-Child Mother Goose Program is a group experience focusing on the pleasure and power of using songs, rhymes, and stories. Parents are helped to gain the skills and confidence that enable them to create positive family patterns through connecting sound, rhythm, and meaning of language.

For more information or to register, please phone Teresa Hsieh at 604-468-6024 (Mandarin).
